

We have to engage with faith communities because it is what survivors want.

"Spiritual support is necessary for the mourning process, telling your story until you no longer feel pain, in order to heal." (Colombia)

"As I am young, I couldn't solve the problems I faced. So I asked for help from my female pastor. She prays for me. She mediates when problems occur." (Myanmar)

Qualitative research of 485 survivors from Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC), Central African Republic (CAR), South Africa, Burundi, Myanmar and Colombia.
